

Dear Editor,

Satrong.

Here is my comments on Jenny's write up (Nari Nirjatone Narir Bhumika-3) and on the comments of M A Salam.

It is a very good article with a very broad sense like her previous articles. I have become very astonished how she could identify the bad elements inherent and embedded within women as well as men. The article proves that she has a very wide mind with no biasness on her own gender.

I wish she will write more and more on such subjects so as to ensure good luck to women-kind.

Muhammad.

Muhammad Ashiqur Rahman.
