

Attributed to Nondini Hussain

None could ever reach the height of sky without relentless efforts,
Only a few could succeed, of which you are the best of all sorts,
Never could one cross over the odds without firm determination, Definitely you could do easily with sense of practical imagination.
Inspiration is your drive to ignite the spark of light in the darkness,
Narrating the truth with courage unto the base in polite humbleness,
Identifying the causes of hindrance for establishing righteousness.

Honestly you are thriving hard to ensure peace and happiness for all,
Under the sky and over the soil you spare nothing to reach the goal,
Sincerity is the golden light ever glowing bright in your great heart,
Sensibility is your quality to establish human right cleaning the dirt.
Attained the height of the zenith, yet you maintain such humbleness,
Innovating all new ideas you have opened the gate of great success,
Neutrality is your essence for achieving the glories of the perfectness.
